Dear Sir:

Enclosed find one of triplicate bills of lading for eight oil paintings the property of Mr. Wm Walter Phelps of this city, shipped to your care as suggested by Mr. James C. Welling, Prest. &c. in his letter of January 21" 1882. Please send me the customary receipt for them.

It was inconvenient to determine and prepay the charges at this point so I have left the whole matter in your care, and hope you may not find it troublesome. Please send me a memorandum of any freight, truck and other charges incurred and I shall be happy to at once send you a check for the amount.

Is it customary to have the paintings &c in your Gallery insured against fire or is the building fire proof?

Yours Truly,

Wm E. Bond.

Norman McLeod Esq

Dear Sir: Can you inform me where and when I can get a photograph of Quentin Matsys' famous triptych, the altar piece with two folding doors in the chapel of the circumcision in the cathedral at Antwerp; or of its central piece, the "Descent from the Cross"? Also, where can I find some account of him and his more famous work, and a list of them all or most of them? Any information on this head will greatly oblige

Yours very truly

Dear Sir.

Will you allow me to call your attention to a picture by the late Carl Hubner, see slip above, which was sold in Mr. Jas. Taylor Johnston's sale for $1,600. & is now in the market.

This painting would certainly be a great addition to the Corcoran Gallery collection as it is a celebrated work & fit more for a public place than any owned elsewhere. The picture can be bought for what it sold for. If you think there is any chance

I to bring bought drafts indeed I to come to send it on to you.
